

ACSI Accreditation

Why is Accreditation Important?

Hernando Christian Academy (HCA) has been accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) since 1995. This accreditation provides parents and guardians with an assurance of a quality education from a dependable educational institution. ACSI is the premier accrediting agency for Christian schools. ACSI accreditation is a process – a self-study, an independent analysis, a comparison to established standards, an assessment of the school's mission, a commitment to quality education, and a willingness to be accountable. HCA uses all of these components of the process to reach toward our goal of excellence in education. Some features and benefits of accreditation are:

Features of Accreditation

College Degreed and Certified Teaching Staff

Educational and Operational Accountability

Campus Security & Activity

Organizational Stability

Christian Values

University & College Acceptance

Benefits to You and Your Child

Assurance that your student will learn in an environment where the instructional staff are credentialed teachers working in their field of expertise.

Assures parents that the school will NOT deviate from tried, tested and proven teaching methods and operational excellence when compared to rigorous standards.

Provides parental peace of mind that the campus is safe, providing a positive learning environment for your child(ren).

Comfort in knowing school finances are handled responsibly and that the school will remain solvent and effective for years to come.

Your child will be taught leadership principles through curriculum, classroom, staff interaction, and student conduct all with a Christian worldview.

Assurance that your high school students' work will be recognized by local and out of state colleges & universities indicating your child(ren)'s preparation for higher learning.
