

Incoming Second Grade Students Summer Reading 2010

All students coming into second grade in the fall will be reading two books over the summer. Choose two of the following books and complete a book report and artwork for each.

Danny and the Dinosaur by Syd Hoff

The Day Jimmy's Boa Ate The Wash by Trinka Hakes Noble

Barry, the Bravest St. Bernard by Lynn Hall

Amelia Bedelia Helps Out by Peggy Parrish or any other Amelia Bedelia book

Frog and Toad Together by Arnold Lobel or any other Frog and Toad book

Book Report Format:

Name
Subject
Date

Title:

Author:

Type of Book: fiction, nonfiction, biography, etc.

Paragraph 1: write a short summary explaining what the book was about. (at least five sentences)

Paragraph 2: write and explain why you liked or did not like this book. (at least three sentences)

Art Work: Make a three fold picture on a piece of white construction paper(or poster board) 12X18 showing something from the book you enjoyed. One section of the picture should be from the beginning of the story, the second section of the picture should be from the middle of the story, and the last section from the end of the story. At the bottom of each section, write one good, descriptive sentence letting me know what the picture depicts. Please color, be neat, creative, and detailed in your picture and sentence.

Both books must be read and the book report needs to be completed and handed in by the first week of school.

Enjoy your summer reading!
